Class Teacher

WOW, what a way to end our first term as Year 6 and end 2023. Whiston Willis Primary Academy have been awarded the Primary School of the Year award. Mr Cooper, Miss Boyd and Mrs Askew attended the ceremony at the House of Lords in London. This award is symbolic of every member of our school community, from pupils, to parents, to welfare staff, to governors and everybody in between. We could not excel as much as we do without everybody's input and I am forever thankful to work in such a wonderful setting!

Curriculum

French – Mrs Vasey has been teaching us how to retell the story of Goldilocks and the Three Bears in French this half-term. We have enjoyed learning key vocabulary, acting out scenarios and discussing the events in French.

Art – In Art, children have been studying Ben Mosley. Ben Mosley is an artist who uses abstract art, using linear representations to recreate sporting celebrations. The children have practised skills required to imitate this style of art and have chosen their favourite sporting photograph to use as inspiration for their final piece – I am absolutely blown away at their work.

English – This week we started our new text, Leila and the Blue Fox. When we entered the classroom, we were presented with a number of items and children were tasked with piecing together these findings to begin to predict who they may belong to. The children were ecstatic to be getting filmed! Literacy Tree, the scheme which we use within school, were blown away by the children's engagement and knowledge.
