

Date (WB) : 15.6.20

Class: Year 5/6

Subject: English

English Learning - Text(s): The Arrival by Shaun Tan
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vAay4myoEDE&feature=youtu.be>

LO: I can empathise with characters in a story.

Look at the pictures below.

Lesson 19

What has happened since the man left his family?
Can you identify why the book is called 'The Arrival'?

How do you think the man is feeling?

Main independent task: (2Do - English lesson 18) What do you think the man is saying in the images.

Save your work in your online tray in hand in to your teacher.

LO: I can write an imaginary recount in the first person.

Look at the image below of when the man first arrived in the new place.

Lesson 20

Main independent task: (2Do - English lesson 20)_Write a recount in first person of the man arriving in this new place. Use your five senses to think about what you see, smell, hear and touch.

What can he see?

What might he hear?

What might he smell?

Save your work in your online tray and hand in to your teacher.

LO: I can use emotive language in a letter.

Think about how the man feels arriving at this unusual place that he does not know. How might he react? How might he be feeling? Will he be missing home?

Lesson 21

Main independent task: (2Do - English lesson 21) Write a letter from the man to his wife and daughter. Think about how you might describe this new place and how you are feeling.

Save your work in your online tray and hand in to your teacher.